New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

Beginning This Morning as Soon as the Store Opens

The Semi-Annual Clearance Sale of Boys' Finest Clothing

Three Hundred Pure Wool Suits in Fancy Patterns of the Choicest Selection from Our Own Stock, and in Sizes 8 to 18, Reduced as Follows:

$11.00 to $15.00 Suits$9.75
$8.50 to $10.00 Suits$7.75
$7.50 and $8.50 Suits$6.00
$6.00 and $7.50 Suits$5.00

They are all Norfolk Models, but in a splendid variety of styles.

There can be no doubt of the great economic importance of this Boys' Summer Clothing Sale. It has stood the strongest test for values year after year, season after season, and will do so again, we confidently believe, with greater success than ever before.

We begin this sale at what we think is the logical time—just as boys are about to leave school for the summer vacation and require new suits—and even though an immediate need is not apparent the reduced prices are sufficiently strong to cause a desire for purchase now to meet advance needs. Such a farsighted action will result in distinct economy.

About 300 suits are represented, all in fancy patterns, but no two patterns alike in the same size; variety is most extensive. Stripes of every kind, checks in numerous sizes and designs; fancy weaves and mixtures of fine appearance in unlimited number. The suits are all Norfolk styles, an absolute guarantee of their newness, as we have had nothing but Norfolk styles in stock during the past season. There are about 12 or 15 distinctly different models to select from.

The combination of newness of style, fine all-wool fabrics, and exceptionally low reduced prices should influence heavy and rapid purchase.

Early Response and Selection Are Strongly Advised.

Society Doings in and Around The National Capital

Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, who has been making a six weeks' visit to her parents, the President and Mrs. Wilson, during her husband's absence in the West, left the White House yesterday for Eagles Mere, Pa.

Mr. Sayre, who is on a special mission for Williams College, of which he is the secretary, will join Mrs. Sayre on his return.

They are expected to be among the first guests invited to the marriage of Mr. Charles E. Hughes, Jr., and Miss Stuart at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine next Wednesday.

Mr. Hughes is not only a classmate and intimate friend of Mr. Sayre but was one of the ushers at the latter's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Sayre will pass a part of the summer at Cornish with Mrs. Wilson and Miss Wilson.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall returned yesterday from a five days' trip through New England, which extended to Bangor, Me. Mrs. Marshall has made no plans for the summer as she proposes remaining with the Vice President so long as he is held in Washington by the Congressional session.

What Wednesday night is to Chevy Chase and Thursday night to the Army and Navy, every evening in a minor degree, to the new Lock Tavern Club on the Potomac. Organized less than a month ago, and only equipped for entertainment in the past two weeks, this newest of the suburban clubs is proving a most important factor in the social life of the summer.

What at present the sports department appeals only to fishermen, who are showing an all-day devotion to this pastime, the club is forging ahead as a dinner retreat of great delight. Situated directly on the river and canal, well shaded at all times and within an hour of Washington, it has been the scene of continuous entertaining in the late afternoon and evenings.

Recent hosts, all practically charter members of the club, which Mr. Truxton Beale is president, have represented every branch of Washington social life. Some of those entertaining at dinner were Gen. James Buchanan, Representative and Mrs. Lathrop Brown, Gen. James Allen, Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, Mrs. Smith, Dr. Frank B. Loring, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheatley, and Miss Morgan.

Engagement Announced

The engagement is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coffin, of Indianapolis, of their daughter, Miss Jean Fitcher Coffin, to Jonas Howard Ingram, U. S. N. Lieut. Ingram is now on the Arkansas before Vera Cruz. The wedding will take place during the late summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jamison, of Greenwood, S. C., will be guests at the Hotel Powhatan during their stay in the city.

Gen. and Mrs. Howard Carroll and their daughter are booked to sail for Europe today on the George Washington. They propose returning to their country home on the Hudson in August.

Miss Genevieve Clark, who officiated as bridesmaid for the third time in as many months on Thursday evening, has for the third time been the bride. She was married to Mr. Charles E. Coffin, of Indianapolis, at the Hotel Powhatan during her stay in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jamison, of Greenwood, S. C., will be guests at the Hotel Powhatan during their stay in the city.
